Business done at yesterday's session of the St. Louis Stock Exchange, while still not particularly active, was, for several days, the demand was higher class securities, and prices held generally firm. Banking issues came in for a fair amount of attention, and these were inquiry in the miscellaneous list, which looks exceedingly full.

State National held in a very strong position, and the American Trust brought $37.50. Tractions were firm, but there was only one transfer in that list, a block of Brown Brothers Subscription at $4. Simmons first and second preferred stock sold respectively at $24 and $24 1/2.
